Saturday 14 July

John Keble, Priest & Poet 1792-1866

A Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. Keble's Assize Sermon of July 1833 is usually taken as the starting point of the Tractarian movement. He refused preferment in order to assist his father who was Vicar of Fairford, Gloucs. Later became Vicar of Hurley, nr Winchester. His spirituality was expressed in his poems and hymns e.g. "New every morning". After his death a subscription was raised to build an Oxford College in his memory.

Anglican Communion Diocese of Egba, Province of Lagos Nigeria, The Rt Revd Emmanuel Adekunle, clergy and people.

Diocese of Egba West, Province of Lagos Nigeria, The Rt Revd Samuel Ajani, clergy and people.

Before 1990 the northern two thirds of Nigeria was largely blocked, but eight new bishops were consecrated, paid for by Lagos parishes, and the Project has been highly successful. It is the second largest province in the Anglican Communion, as measured by baptized membership, after the Church of England. Since 2002 the Church of Nigeria is organised in 10 ecclesiastical provinces. It has rapidly increased the number of its dioceses and bishops from 91 to 122. The administrative headquarters are in Abuja.

God for All The Second 'Messy Cumbria' Conference today, praying for all those teams exploring a new Messy Church locally.

SUNDAY 15 July

Trinity 7- St Swithun

Swithun was educated in Winchester and became Chaplain to King Egbert of Wessex and Bishop of Winchester, then the royal capital, in 852. The tradition about raining for forty days derives from two elements; (i) Swithun had requested that he should be buried in the ordinary cemetery outside the west door of the Old Minster "where his grave might be trodden on by passers by the rain fall upon it" and, (ii) During the rebuilding of the Cathedral in 971, the walls were extended to include his tomb which had become a place of pilgrimage and there was a period of very heavy rainfall which was attributed to Swithun.

Anglican Communion The Anglican Church of Papua New Guinea, The Most Reverend Allan Migi Archbishop of Papua New Guinea.

The Anglican Church of Papua New Guinea, the Province was founded 1977. It has a population of around four million with the Anglican population in five Dioceses.

Solway Deanery Pray for the Maryport, Netherton, Flimby parishes: Susan McKendry (Team Vicar), Margaret Fogg (Associate Priest) Julie Batsford, and Linda Ratcliffe (Readers) and the ongoing mission to the town and the communities that form it. Especially for Broughton Moor as it faces an uncertain future.

(For notes on the Anglican Church in Nigeria, see 14 July.)

Solway Deanery Pray for our work with the churches in the Maryport Team, especially for our joint baptism, wedding and confirmation preparation and our shared Messy Church. Pray that we may be able to encourage those involved to find out more about God's love for them.

Our Bishops Bishop James, Meetings Bishops House.

Tuesday 17 July

Anglican Communion Diocese of Egypt, Jerusalem & Middle East, The Revd Mouneer Hanna Anis.

Area Bishop for the Horn of Africa, currently in vacancy.

Area Bishop for the North of Africa, Jerusalem & Middle East, The Rt Revd Samy Fawzy, clergy and people.

The Church in Jerusalem and the Middle East covers the four dioceses of Jerusalem, Iran, Egypt, Cyprus and the Gulf. The Jerusalem bishopric was founded in 1841 and became an archbishopric in 1957. Reorganization in January 1976 ended the archbishopric and combined the Diocese of Jordan, Lebanon, and Syria with the Jerusalem bishopric after a nineteen-year separation. Around the same time, the new Diocese of Cyprus and the Gulf was formed and the Diocese of Egypt was revived. The Cathedral Church of St George the Martyr in Jerusalem is known for its ministry to pilgrims. St George's College, Jerusalem, is in partnership with the Anglican Communion.

Solway Deanery Prayer for the parishes of Camerton & Seaton: for the clergy and ministers Ian Grainger (Vicar), Irene Fearon (Associate Priest), Grace Blackwell (Licensed Lay Reader).

Wednesday 18 July

Elizabeth Ferard

Friday 21 July

Anglican Communion El Salvador, Central America, The Rt Revd Juan David Alvarado Melgar, clergy and people.

Iglesia Anglicana de la Region Central de America is one of the newest in the Anglican Communion and is made up of the dioceses of Guatemala, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, and Panama. With the exception of Costa Rica, all had been part of the Episcopal Church of the United States of America. The Church was introduced by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel when England administered two colonies in Central America, Belize (1783-1982) and Miskitia (1740-1894). In later years Afro-Antillean people brought their Anglican Christianity with them. The Province is multicultural and is committed to evangelization, social outreach, and community development.

Solway Deanery Pray For Solway Team, its clergy Bryan Rothewell (Team Rector), Peter Hayward (Associate Priest), Malcolm Stilwell, Tim Barker (Reader), Cherry Asbury, Christine Young, and Revd Richard Goodfellow and the ongoing pastoral scheme for formation of a single parish and the formation.

Our Bishops Bishop James, Keswick Convention, Keswick (Second Week).

SUNDAY 22 July

St Mary Magdalene

Mary was one of a group of women who followed Jesus and whom he cured of 'infirmities and evil spirits'. She was close to Jesus at the Crucifixion and at his burial; she went with Joseph of Arimathea to secure the release of the body of Jesus from Pilate. Mary also went to the tomb early on the day of the Resurrection and, was the first to see the risen Lord and ran to tell the Apostles. Mary was therefore known in mediaeval times as 'the apostle to the Apostles'.

Anglican Communion The Episcopal Church in the Philippines, clergy and people.

With its history as a Spanish colony, the Philippines were predominantly Roman Catholic. When Americans colonized the country in 1898, Anglican missionary work began in the north and south. The Church consecrated its first Bishop in 1963, with four dioceses established by 1971 and, became an autonomous Province in 1990. It was inaugurated on 1 May 1990.

God for All Prayer

God for all,
You reached out to the world
in your Son Jesus Christ.
Help us to reach out in faith and love and witness to all.

God for all,
you send your Holy Spirit
to empower and gift your Church.
By your Spirit help us
grow in unity,
grow as followers of Jesus Christ,
and grow in your kingdom
in Cumbria and in this world
Amen
