

An Anglican-Methodist Covenant

Covenant Champions

Volunteer Positions

Are you a lay or ordained person in the Church of England or the Methodist Church who longs for both churches to move towards fuller unity in mission, worship, and holiness?

Do you have the enthusiasm, understanding, and commitment to raise the profile of the Covenant and to champion the work currently being done to enable both churches to fulfil their commitments to God and each other?

Initially, we are seeking up to six people from the two churches to be Covenant Champions in each of nine regions for a term of up to four years.

You could be one of these in your region and make a significant difference to how both churches live the Covenant. Your commitment would be about ten hours a month.

Expressions of interest are invited from lay and ordained persons in good standing in either the Church of England or the Methodist Church.

Closing date: 12 noon on Monday 7 November 2016

There will be interviews on Friday 25 November 2016 in London and on Friday 2 December 2016 in Manchester
